Xiao Jiang is a 24-year-old college student. He has been in Kunming for more than 1 year, but he just recently broke up with his boyfriend. The last few days he has sat home alone and lonely. Tonight he is feeling especially lonely and he wants to go out and find a new friend. But he needs your help to decide where he's going to look...

No matter where Xiao Jiang decides to go, his first decision is whether or not he should bring a condom with him...

Where should Xiao Jiang go cruising tonight? A gay bar? A bathhouse? Should he try the Internet?

Xiao Jiang and his friends drank a lot.

After Xiao Jiang is already drunk, he meets a handsome man and invites him to dance and drink together.

The two get a room together, but they're both too drunk to remember to use a condom...

The next morning, Xiao Jiang discovers his friend is not as good looking as he originally thought. He regrets having had so much to drink. Five months later, a friend of Xiao Jiang's sees a poster for World AIDS Day and brings Xiao Jiang so that they can be tested together. The friend's test is fine, but Xiao Jiang's result is positive...

The End

Xiao Jiang decides he should only drink a little, but have a good time with his friends. While going to the bathroom, he runs into an old boyfriend. They broke up when the man moved away for college and they haven't seen one another in a long time. Tonight they talk, and Xiao Jiang invites him the boy to get a room together. But does Xiao Jiang have a condom?

Fortunately, Xiao Jiang has a condom with him. The two old boyfriends have a really romantic evening together, and afterwards the boy leaves his telephone number for Xiao Jiang. Afterwards they start to see each other again more and more often—Xiao Jiang is really happy!

The End

Xiao Jiang doesn't have a condom, but when they were together they never used condoms and there was never a problem. Now Xiao Jiang is really horny, he doesn't want to go buy a condom, so they just do it without protection.

After a week, Xiao Jiang's ass starts to really itch and he sees little blisters on the skin. When he goes to the doctor, he is told he has herpes - which is a lifelong infection that can be treated but cannot be cured!

The End

Xiao Jiang decides to go to a bathhouse and look for a new friend. When he arrives he sees a really good-looking guy...

Xiao Jiang and the guy find a dark spot and start making out. It is getting hot and heavy, and then the man asks Xiao Jiang, “Do you have a condom with you?” Did Xiao Jiang remember to bring a condom?

Xiao Jiang brought a condom with him, so they were able to have a good time together. Afterwards they discovered that they have a lot in common. In the end they became boyfriends – Xiao Jiang is really happy!

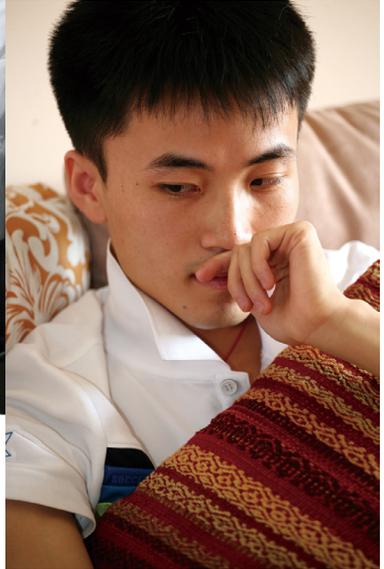

The End

Xiao Jiang didn't bring a condom with him, but this guy is really healthy and looks completely fine. His skin doesn't have any problems, and his penis is normal. This person must be really safe. Can Xiao Jiang have sex without using a condom?

Yes Page 16

No Page 17

Because the hot guy seems healthy, they have unprotected sex and afterwards Xiao Jiang gives the guy his phone number. Several days later, the guy telephones Xiao Jiang to say that he found out he has gonorrhea, and Xiao Jiang might have it too! Now Xiao Jiang has to spend money at the doctor, plus the guy tells everyone that Xiao Jiang has an STI and now no one wants to sleep with him!

The End

Xiao Jiang doesn't have a condom, and he knows that unprotected sex is dangerous. But he's really horny! What can he do? His friend says "No condom, no problem. Let's jerk each other off!"

In the end, they both get off, and Xiao Jiang is able to rest easy knowing that he doesn't need to worry about HIV.

The End

Xiao Jiang thinks going out to look for a friend is too much trouble—he can look for someone online!

If he sees someone he likes, they can meet up in person. Xiao Jiang spends several hours in a chat room looking for someone.

Eventually, he meets a hot man. They chat for a while, and then the man asks if Xiao Jiang wants to meet up for fun. Should Xiao Jiang go?

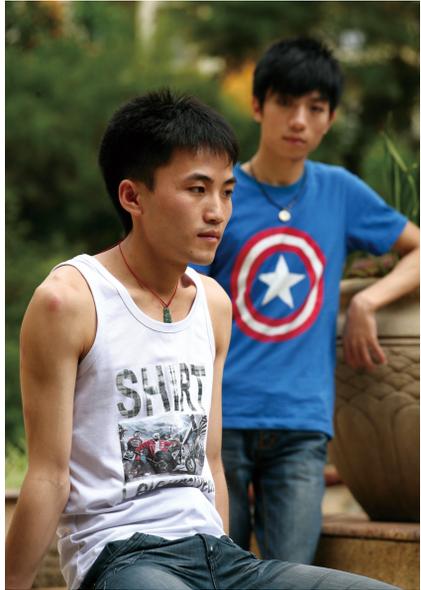

Yes Page 18 No Page 17

It's already quite late, and because Xiao Jiang has a good feeling about this man and doesn't want to give him the wrong idea. They agree to meet again in the chat room the following day, and then Xiao Jiang goes to bed. The second day, the man invites Xiao Jiang to meet him for dinner. They have a great time, and afterwards they talk often. In the end, they become boyfriends!

The End

Xiao Jiang and his Internet friend made a date to meet. When Xiao Jiang saw a handsome man coming up to him, he was really excited. They talked for a while, and then decided to find a hotel room.

When they started making out, Xiao Jiang's friend asked "Do you have a condom? I won't do it without protection."

Luckily, Xiao Jiang was carrying a condom with him. He and his new friend have a great time together, and Xiao Jiang is thrilled that he was prepared and that now can take it easy and not worry about whether he may have gotten HIV!

The End

Xiao Jiang doesn't have a condom with him, and his new friend says "No way—just what kind of person do you think I am! My health is important to me!" After the handsome man leaves, it's already too late for Xiao Jiang to find another "friend" and he has to sleep alone. But he didn't get what he was looking for, and he didn't sleep very well either!
