

On September 18 VR Committee on Human Rights, National Minorities and Interethnic Relations in cooperation with PDP II conducted the round table on the theme: "The situation on providing of equal rights and opportunities for rural women in Ukraine." The event was attended by MPs, representatives of ministries and agencies, foreign missions, NGOs. Through the dissemination of information about the event through a network of Citizen Access Points and the community of trainings' participants conducted by PDP II, the event was attended by 38 of rural women - the leaders of agricultural service cooperatives, teachers, village heads.

During the roundtable there were discussed the state of implementation of the UN Convention "On the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women" in relation to rural women, the situation in the field of health, welfare, women in rural areas, their education, employment, labor, economic development and so on.