PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

A. Purpose of Grant

The purpose of this Grant is to establish a replicable system of low-cost grain storage facilities at the village level.

B. Specific Objectives

This project will promote and make maximum use of existing village-level construction technology, with improvements to the footings and platforms. The facilities, which will have a base constructed with cement and reinforcement rods, are designed to last for 15 years. New storage units will be built at the end of 15 years on the same bases. During the life of the project, 800 on-farm storage units will be constructed - 200 units per year. Project activities will be carried out in Batha, Chari-Baguirmi, Bol, Ouaddai and Logone Prefectures.

C. Implementation

The Grantee field representatives will be responsible for the following duties:

1. Orientation/training of the Government of Chad (GOC) Counterpart (agricultural extension agents) in the objectives, approach and methodology of this project which is conceptually new to the extension agents.

2. Selection of farmers in collaboration with the counterparts to include an evaluation of their potential to participate in the project on an individual basis.

3. Organizing and training the farmers in the techniques of cement and clay base.

4. Supervision of construction.

5. Preparation of a field manual to set forth all pertinent aspects of the project activity and to serve as an operational document for similar activities.

6. Preparation of educational materials in improved storage practices to include, such items as posters, film strips, etc.

7. Direction and supervision of all operational elements of the project to include such specific items as:

a. Administration and reporting

b. procurement of materials and equipment

c. arranging and coordinating logistics and transportation.

d. village and field surveys and subsequent surveillance of field operations on an on-going basis

e. the technicians will be responsible for supervising the construction of 800 silos to be built enter the life of this four year project.

8. Internal evaluation of project activities.

In addition, CARE, CDO N'Djamena, AID/TAB Division and Kansas State University will continue to monitor and consult on possible design modifications of the silos. Kansas State should also participate in periodic project evaluation. Transportation cost for Kansas State personnel will be provided by the CDO NDjamena.

D. Reporting

At the end of 12 months the Grantee shall conduct a project evaluation. This report should indicate:

1. Actual as compared to projected progress toward achieving the project purpose.

2. Financial Report of project activities.

3. Any modification in the design of silo.

The reports shall be submitted, five copies each to CDO/Ndjamena and AFR/DR/SFWAP in AID/W no later than September 30, 1978 and September, 1979.

E. Budget

1. The funds provided herein shall be used to finance the items described in the following budget:
