

AFRICA REGIONAL ELECTORAL ASSISTANCE FUND
PROJECT NARRATIVE

AFRICAN DEMOCRACY NETWORK

IRI

$300,144

AREAF is providing a training seminar on practical methods for the conduct of elections, involving representatives of indigenous election-related organizations from eastern and southern African nations. AREAF aims to provide assistance in establishing an African Democracy Network to continue such training. The seminar is scheduled to take place on February 2-4, 1994 in Gaborone, Botswana.

BURUNDI

NDI

$154,000

AREAF provided training to political parties and party pollwatcher training in preparation for June 1993 elections.

BURUNDI

NDI

$277,021

AREAF provided election observers to presidential and legislative elections in June 1993 and technical assistance to domestic monitors and the national election commission. On October 21, 1993 rebel forces attempted a coup d'état and murdered Burundi's first democratically-elected president, Melchior Ndadaye and several members of his cabinet and parliamentary leadership. Subsequently, the remnants of Burundi's elected officials returned to office, despite continued ethnic conflict. Further consolidation work is anticipated.

CAMEROON

NDI

$249,515

AREAF provided training for civic associations in election monitoring and international observation of the presidential elections in October 1992.

CAR	NDI	$5,488
-----	-----	---------

AREAF provided technical assistance and a debriefing of the diplomatic community on the methodology of election observers in October 1992.

CAR	NDI	$181,366
-----	-----	-----------

AREAF provided training of political pollwatchers and civic organization members in election monitoring techniques and international observers for the legislative and presidential elections in August 1993.

CHAD	AAI	$45,925
------	-----	----------

AREAF provided an assessment mission in preparation for the 1994 elections.

CONGO	AAI	$97,727
-------	-----	----------

AREAF provided an observer delegation to the legislative elections of May (first round), June (second round) 1993 and October 1993 (repeat of aborted second round elections). Political violence has erupted in the capital city between government supporters and opposition militants. Reports indicate that over 100 people have been killed in the fighting. It should be anticipated that a final round of legislative elections could be mandated by the Constitutional Court based on a number of contested districts still pending from the first round of elections.

DEMOCRATIC CONSOLIDATION IN NIGER, MALI, BENIN	NDI	$177,602
---	-----	-----------

AREAF will provide a legislative training program in Niamey for Nigerien, Beninois and Malian national assemblies, assisting these assemblies to increase their effectiveness and to assist the process of consolidating democratic governance in these countries.

GABON

NDI
AAI

$31,490
$292,728

AREAF provided an international monitoring delegation for the presidential elections on December 5, 1993. At the request of NDI, AAI completed the NDI project in Gabon by providing a pre-electoral assessment and sending an international delegation to observe the presidential elections. The presidential election results were announced on December 9, 1993 confirming President Bongo to another five years in office with 51.07% of the vote.

GERDDES

NDI

$55,000

AREAF together with the State Department Human Rights Fund provided democratic development seminars and training in civic organization administration to GERDDES and other West African democratic development organizations.

GHANA

CARTER CENTER

$400,000

AREAF provided an assessment of the electoral environment, training of domestic monitors and observers of the presidential elections which were held in November 1992.

GHANA

NDI

$53,822

AREAF began a program to train Ghanains to conduct a parallel vote tabulation for second-round presidential elections, which were never held because of the first round results. A portion of the remaining funds are to be reprogrammed.

UGANDA	AAI	$85,556
--------	-----	----------

AREAF provided an assessment in preparation for Constituent Assembly elections scheduled for December 1993, and national elections anticipated in 1994.

UGANDA	AAI	$485,826
--------	-----	-----------

AREAF is providing an assistance program that included training Ugandan election monitors and civic education trainers, technical assistance to the election commission, and commodities for Constituent Assembly elections in December 1993. In addition, AREAF will provide international observers to the elections. The original CA election date, December 1993, was extended due to a series of timetable constraints. The voter registration began on November 8, to be completed in 30 days, followed by a two week review of the registration lists. This, according to the Electoral Code, is to be followed by a two-day candidate nomination process and finally a period of 30 days for campaigning. This has pushed the CA election date forward to March 28, 1994.

UGANDA

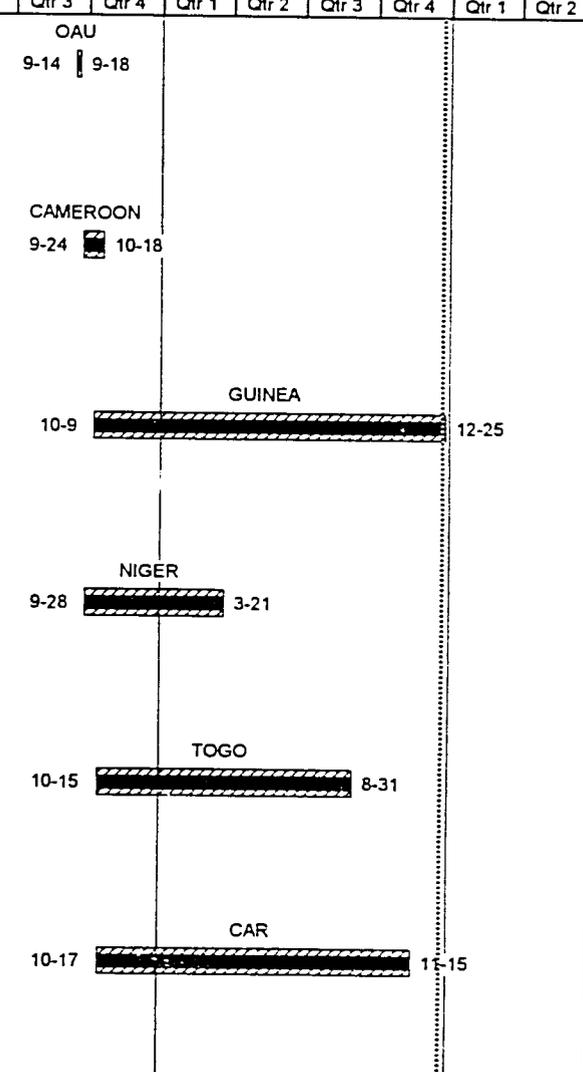

IRI

$131,283

AREAF will provide training of candidates' agents pollwatchers for the Constituent Assembly elections.
