ANNEX A

I. THE PROJECT DESCRIPTION

A. Project Purpose: To assist the Government of Cape Verde to expand public awareness and acceptance of the civil and human rights of women and children.

B. Subprojects: The project, which will be undertaken by two separate branches of the Ministry of Health and Social Promotion, will support the production of information and educational materials for two human rights educational campaigns:

1) The project will provide assistance to the Ministry of Health and Social Promotion's Social Promotion branch to produce informational material on the situation of women in Cape Verde, particularly with regard to the problem of violence against women. The information will form the basis for Grantee's educational Campaign Against Violence Against Women.

2) The project will provide assistance to the Ministry of Health and Social Promotion's Institute for Minors to produce informational and educational materials on the situation of children in Cape Verdean Society. The materials and information will be used to educate the population with a view to instilling respect and protection for the human rights of children.

C. Financial Plan

1) U.S. Contribution: The United States hereby grants $20,000 (twenty thousand U.S. dollars) to the Grantee for purposes of the project.

2) Grantee Contribution: The Grantee agrees to provide personnel, their transportation and incidental expenses necessary for timely and successful completion of the project.

3) Illustrative Budget

Materials for Campaign Against Violence Against Women	$ 8,000
---	----------

Materials for Campaign for Children's Rights	$12,000
--	----------

Total	$20,000
-------	----------

II. SPECIAL PROVISIONS

A. Procurement and Disbursement:

1) Except as the United States may otherwise agree in writing, commodities financed under the Grant shall have their source and origin, and providers of services under the Grant shall have their nationality, in countries included in A.I.D. Geographic Code 935 as in effect at the time such commodities or services are contracted for or ordered.

2) All disbursements under the Grant shall be handled by the United States mission to Cape Verde in accordance with its regulations and procedures, or by such other method as the parties may agree to in writing. The Grantee hereby authorizes the United States to contract on its behalf for commodities and services required for the project.

B. Reports and Evaluation: The Grantee agrees to provide to the United States a report on the activities, problems and results of each subproject hereunder. Such reports shall be provided within 45 days of the completion of each subproject. The Grantee further agrees to provide all information, and records that may be needed for evaluation of the project by the United States.

C. Representatives: For all purposes relevant to the Agreement, the Grantee will be represented by the person holding or acting in the office of Minister of Health and Social Promotion. The United States will be represented by the individual holding or acting in the position of Ambassador to Cape Verde. Each such representative may designate in writing additional representatives for all purposes other than the amendment of this Agreement. The names of any such designated representatives, together with specimen signatures, shall be provided to the United States which may thereafter accept as duly authorized any instrument signed by such representatives in implementation of the project until receipt of notice withdrawing such representational authority.

ANNEX B

STANDARD PROVISIONS ANNEX

A. Reference to this "Agreement" means the original Project Agreement. Reference to "Cooperating country" means the country or territory of the Grantee.

B. (1) The U.S. Embassy will make available the amount specified in Block 3 of this Agreement, as necessary for the Project, as may be further described in Annex A.

(2) The Grantee will make available the amount specified in Block 4 of this Agreement, as may be necessary for the Project, as may further be described in Annex A. The Grantee will also make, or arrange to have made, additional contributions of property, services, facilities and funds required for carrying out the Project as specified in Annex A.

C. The Grantee may obtain the assistance of other public and private agencies in carrying out their respective obligations under this Agreement. The Grantee may agree to accept contributions of property, services, facilities and funds for purposes of this Agreement from other public and private agencies, and may agree upon the participation of any such third party in carrying out activities under this Agreement.

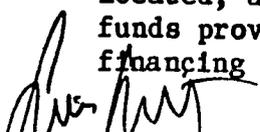

D. (1) Any property furnished to either party through financing by the other party pursuant to this Agreement shall, unless otherwise agreed by the party which financed the procurement, be used effectively for the purposes of the Project in accordance with this Agreement, and upon completion of the Project, will be used so as to further objectives sought in carrying out the Project. Either party shall offer to return to the other, or to reimburse the other for, any property which it obtains through financing by the other pursuant to this Agreement which is not used in accordance with the preceding sentence.

E. Any funds provided to the Grantee pursuant to this Agreement which are not used in accordance with this Agreement, shall be refunded to the U.S. Government.

F. All funds provided by the United States Government to the Grantee for purposes of carrying out obligations of this Agreement shall be convertible into currency of the cooperating country at the highest rate which, at the time the conversion is made, is not unlawful in the cooperating country.

G. The American Embassy shall expend funds and carry on operations pursuant to this Agreement only in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations of the United States Government.

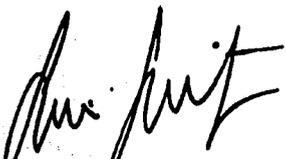

H. The two parties shall have the right at any time to observe operations carried out under this Agreement. Either party during the term of the Project shall further have the right (1) to examine any property procured through financing by that party under this Agreement, wherever such property is located, and (2) to inspect and audit any records and accounts with respect to funds provided by, or any properties and contract services procured through financing by, that party under this Agreement, wherever such records may be located and maintained. Each party, arranging for any disposition of any property procured through financing by the other party under this Agreement, shall assure that the right of examination, inspection and audit described in the preceding sentence are reserved to the party which did the financing.

I. The two parties shall each furnish the other with such information as may be needed to determine the nature and scope of operations under this Agreement and to evaluate the effectiveness of such operations.

J. The present Agreement shall enter into force when last signed. Either party may terminate this Agreement by giving the other party thirty (30) days written notice of intention to terminate it. Termination of this Agreement shall terminate any obligations of the two parties to make contributions pursuant to Blocks 3 and 4 of this Agreement, except for payments which they are committed to make pursuant to noncancellable commitments entered into with third parties prior to the termination of this Agreement. It is expressly understood that the obligations under paragraph H relating to the use of property or funds shall remain in force after such termination.
