LAND TENURE CENTER SPECIAL BIBLIOGRAPHY

Fall 1972

The bibliography is subdivided into the following topics:

1. Agrarian Economy (includes: Rice Agriculture, Agricultural Statistics)
2. Peasant Economics
3. Land Reform
4. Land Tenure
5. Village Studies
6. Regional Studies (varies by country)
7. Peasant Politics and Unrest (includes Rural Government)
8. Cultures, Values, and Social Structure
9. Economic Development
10. National Politics
11. Bibliographies
12. Periodicals
13. Community Development
14. General Works

In particular, we have tried to emphasize those studies which deal with social structure and peasant politics. The bibliography will therefore be of most value to those scholars who wish to relate economic change to social structure and politics. Purely technical studies and crop research have not been included. Where items seemed to merit inclusion in more than one category, they have been multiple-listed.

We would be grateful to receive notice of any important omissions and errors in order to improve any future editions.

Among the general sources used to compile this bibliography were the following: Southeast Asia: An Annotated Bibliography of Selected Reference Sources in Western Languages, compiled by Cecil Hobbs (Orientalia Division, Reference Department, Library of Congress, 1964, revised and enlarged); Southeast Asia: A Critical Bibliography, by Kennedy G. Tregonning (Tucson, Arizona: University of Arizona Press, 1969); East and Southeast Asia: A Bibliography, compiled by the Land Tenure Center, No. 14, Training and Methods Series (Madison, Wisconsin: Land Tenure Center, March, 1971); A Guide to Books on Southeast Asian History (1961-1966), Gayle Morrison, Compiler, Stephen Hay, Editor, (Santa Barbara, California: ABC, 1969); Journal of Asian Studies Bibliography for the years 1966, 1967, 1968, 1969, 1970; Teaching about Asia at the Secondary Level: Report of the Fifteenth Yale Conference on the Teaching of Social Studies, Oct. 17-18, 1969, (New Haven, Conn.: Office of Teacher Training, 1969); Treasures and Trivia: Doctoral Dissertations on Southeast Asia accepted by Universities in the United States, compiled by Lian The and Paul van der Veur, Papers in International Studies, Southeast Asia Series No. 1 (Athens, Ohio: Ohio University Center for International Studies, 1968); Research on Agricultural Development in Southeast Asia, by Clifton Wharton, (New York: Agricultural Development Council, 1965); In Search of Southeast Asia: A Modern History, by David Joel Steinberg, et. al., pp. 439-498 (New York: Praeger, 1971); Southeast Asian Tribes, Minorities and Nations, edited by Peter Kunstadter (Princeton: Princeton University Press, 1967).

For Burma and Thailand, in particular, a number of additional sources were consulted including: Furnivall of Burma: An Annotated Bibliography of the works of John S. Furnivall, Compiled and Edited by Frank N. Trager, Bibliography Series No. 8 (New Haven: Yale University Southeast Asian Studies, 1963); Annotated Bibliography of Burma, Prepared by Burma Research Project at New York University, Frank H. Trager, Director and Editor (New Haven: Human Relations Area Files, 1956); Burmese Economic Life, by J. Russell Andrus, (Stanford: Stanford University Press, 1947); Michael Adas, "Agrarian Development and the Rural Society in Lower Burma" (Ph.D. dissertation, University of Wisconsin, Madison, 1971); Thailand: Politics, Economy and Socio-Cultural Setting: A Selective Guide to the Literature, by Woodworth G. Thrombley and William J. Siffin (Bloomington: Indiana University Press, 1972); Michael Moerman, Agricultural Change and Peasant Choice in a Thai Village (Berkeley: University of California Press, 1968); James C. Ingram, Economic Change in Thailand, 1850-1970 (Stanford: Stanford University Press, 1971); T. H. Silcock, The Economic Development of Thai Agriculture (Ithaca: Cornell University Press, 1970).
