

WOMEN IN DEVELOPMENT INFORMATION RESOURCES AND PUBLICATION LIST

- A.I.D. offers two sources from which to request information and documentation that pertain to the role of women in developing countries. References from both appear on the attached list.

- The Office of Women in Development has a small collection of documents that it distributes free of charge. You may use the attached order form to request these documents. If a PN number follows the citation, please order that publication from the A.I.D. Document & Information Handling Facility address. Otherwise, simply check the document(s) you want and send the form to the following address:

Publication Manager
Office of Women in Development
Agency for International Development
Room 3725A
Washington, DC 20523-0041

- Publications with "PN" numbers after them are available from the A.I.D. Document Facility. Documents cost $0.13 per page for paper copies and $1.08 per microfiche (105 x 148 mm, 98 frames per microfiche, 24x reduction). Do not send payment with your order, you will be billed. Please send your request to:

- A more extensive collection of WID reference documents is available in open stacks at the A.I.D. Library. This collection contains both A.I.D. and non-A.I.D. documents gathered from Agency offices or contributed by the World Bank, the United Nations, and other donor and private organizations and individuals. Reference documents in the WID collection are organized by sector including: agriculture, education, employment and income-generation, energy and natural resources, and health. Other categories cover the A.I.D.-designated geographic regions of Asia/near East, Africa, and Latin America and the Caribbean.

The library is located at 1601 N. Kent St., Rosslyn Plaza, Rm. 105, Arlington, VA, and is open to the public from 10:00 a.m. through 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.
