Introduction to Trade Capacity Building

Since 2001, the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) conducts a survey on behalf of the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR) to identify and quantify the U.S. Government's trade capacity building activities in developing countries and transitional economies. The survey enables the creation of an online, searchable database of U.S. trade capacity building (TCB) funding (<http://tcb.eads.usaidallnet.gov/>). The database includes TCB activities in the areas of policy, human resources, institutional infrastructure, and physical infrastructure that are designed to promote trade or have a direct link to promoting a country's ability to conduct trade within the World Trade Organization (WTO) rules-based system.

The database has been updated annually since 2001. The latest survey is designed to collect data on FY2010 TCB funding on an obligation basis. The data are used to respond to inquiries from Congress and executive branch agencies on United States Government TCB activities throughout the world. They are also used to respond to requests from the WTO and the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) for information on U.S. Government (USG) activities.

In the past, the collected data were used to prepare U.S. Government reports on trade capacity building for the WTO Ministerial Meetings in 2001, 2003, and 2005. For more information on those reports and on trade capacity building, visit the TCB Database website at <http://tcb.eads.usaidallnet.gov/reports/>.

The TCB Database focuses only on initiatives and programs that strengthen the capacity of developing countries and transitional economies to engage in international trade. USG activities to promote U.S. exports to developing countries and other overseas markets should not be included in the reporting, unless they also clearly contribute to strengthening the trade capacity of developing countries and transitional economies.

Reporting Instructions

What are the roles of the Point of Contact (POC)?

The TCB Point of Contact (POC) is the spokesperson and the assigned, responsible person to assure the completion of the 2010 Trade Capacity Survey. She/he represents a specific USAID mission, a regional Bureau or a Washington Bureau for any and all TCB activities that transpired in FY 2010.

Because she/he is on the “front line”, the POC determines what TCB activity(ies) will be reported in the TCB survey. The POC knows his/her unique situation and all the factors in his/her reporting unit. Therefore, the POC has the liberty (and responsibility) to complete the survey questionnaire in one of three ways. She/he can assign one or many staff to actually complete the questionnaire. The Point of Contact has the choice to:

- Personally complete the survey, or
- Assign (some or all of) it to a staff member, or
- Assign (some or all of) it to several staff members.

Please take note that each reporting unit (the USAID Mission or Agency Bureau), through the POC, receives one combination of User Name and Password. As stated in the bulleted points above, the POC can share that code with as many staff she/he feels necessary to complete the task.

In Washington, the TCB team responsible for the Survey prefers to communicate with one person – the Point of Contact. Management and decision-making is best left to the POC at the “front line”. Help and Survey assistance is available, and it is best offered from the TCB Help Team and through the POC.

What types of activities should be reported as “trade capacity building”?

Many USG agencies and institutions provide technical assistance to help developing countries and transition economies accede to, or comply with, the World Trade Organization. In addition to WTO accession and agreements, many USG agencies provide technical assistance to developing countries and transition economies in order to build their trade competitiveness. Examples of technical assistance activities that are not specifically related to WTO accession or agreements, but can be TCB activities include, but are not limited to, the following:

- negotiating regional trade agreements
- eliminating subsidies or price controls in the trade sector
- improving trade statistics
- encouraging business support services for exporting and importing companies
- developing business information for export and import markets

- drafting commercial codes
- implementing antimonopoly policies
- designing consumer protection policies
- reforming government procurement
- improving sanitary/phytosanitary standards in traded goods
- promoting technology transfer to enhance trade
- removing technical barriers to trade
- applying rules of origin for trading purposes
- improving customs procedures
- developing a competitive workforce
- encouraging trade finance
- developing the financial sector
- achieving sound fiscal, monetary, and exchange rate policies
- developing necessary infrastructure for trade
- designing environmental standards and technology
- promoting investment agreements and investment protection mechanisms

What type of activities should NOT be reported as “trade capacity building”?

- support to microfinance or microenterprise institutions, unless it is specifically to promote the export of traditional handicrafts and other goods
- general activities to increase agricultural productivity, unless it is specifically to promote the export of particular agricultural products
- technical assistance provided by a USG agency or unit but funded by the host country government or by a multilateral donor institution
- privatization activities, unless they affect enterprises in the trading sector or increase the availability of trade finance
- support to the development of natural resources, unless it is expected to foster cross-border exchange of those resources
- assistance going directly to an economic country group that includes at least some non-developing country members, e.g., APEC, unless assistance is aimed at only the developing country members
- support for energy sector policy and institutional reform, unless it is expected to expand export capacity either directly or indirectly
- support for improving governance and transparency at the local level of government
- an activity designed to improve the effectiveness of a USG program itself, e.g., the appointment of senior advisors to facilitate decisions on program funding
- support for national parks and conservation, unless it is designed specifically to attract foreign tourism trade
- education activities, unless they are specifically designed to improve trade-related skills or knowledge of trade policy issues, e.g., introduction of international accounting standards or WTO rules workshops

- child survival activities
- civil society activities, unless they are specifically designed to increase citizen participation in trade policymaking

How will this survey information be used?

The reported data will be used to respond to requests from Congress and executive branch agencies for timely and descriptive information on the trade capacity building activities of the USG. In addition, the data will be used for monitoring the U.S. TCB commitments made at the WTO's Doha Ministerial Meeting in 2001 and Hong Kong Ministerial Meeting in 2005. Beyond these specific and immediate needs, the reported data and information will enable USAID to update and expand the USG's Trade Capacity Building Database. The TCB Database is available on USAID's TCB website for direct use by USG agencies and the public (<http://tcb.eads.usaidallnet.gov/>).

At what level should TCB activities be reported on this survey?

The information should be reported at the "activity" or "program" level. Funding reported at the country or at the strategic objective or agency goal level is too generalized. Funding reported at the task order or "event" level is too specific. Please carefully review the following section that highlights several important highlights to the survey.

We realize that terminology varies across U.S. government agencies. Please contact the TCB team at tcb@devtechsys.com if you have questions regarding the level of reporting specificity that is required.

CHECKLIST: What information do you need to complete the reporting?

- The title of the activity that promotes trade capacity building.
- A brief description of the activity, demonstrating how it promotes to TCB.
- (All reporters) Activity website, if available.
- (All reporters) Name and contact information of the Cognizant Technical Officer (CTO) or Activity Technical Officer responsible for this activity.
- The FY2010 TCB-related obligation for the activity.
- (All reporters) Funding accounts for this activity, including contact information.
- Information on the implementing agencies, including contact information.
- The countries that benefit from the activity.
- The allocation of the funding by TCB categories.
- (For USAID and State reporters only) Knowledge of the Program Framework fund allocation.
- Knowledge of whether the activity supports TCB in the cotton production sector or cotton-related sectors.
- Knowledge of whether the activity funding is part of the African Growth Competitiveness Initiative (AGCI).
- Knowledge of whether the activity has been or is being monitored or evaluated, beyond the standard approach for monitoring or evaluated within the agency, along with any website for the monitoring and evaluation.
- If the country is a developing country participant in the Integrated Framework, knowledge of whether the activity supports any of the priorities identified in the Diagnostic Trade Integration Study (DTIS).
- If the activity is funded by USAID, but implemented by another USG agency report the transfer mechanism: 632(a) or 632(b).
- (For USAID reporters only) The award numbers of procurement mechanisms (contracts, grants, or cooperative agreements) associated with this activity.
- Agency based identification codes for activities (optional).

Key Features of the TCB Survey

As veteran data reporters noticed, in 2008 there were significant changes to the TCB Survey. Those changes remain in effect in 2010. Here are the important changes that occurred and remain in effect this current year:

- The definition of “activity” was expanded (all reporters): In the case when a program benefits several countries or continues over several years, it is regarded as one activity. The survey captures this connection and provides TCB database users with the opportunity to search activities that extend over multiple years or countries.
- USER ACCOUNTS HAVE ALREADY BEEN CREATED: An important change to the survey was that reporters no longer have to register and create user accounts. The user accounts for all reporting units are already created and the USER NAME and PASSWORD are provided via email.
- REVIEW AND VERIFY (all reporters): The TCB data collection allows data reporters to review and revise their submissions for the previous year’s submission.
- ACTIVITY WEBSITE (all reporters): Answering this request is optional, but many agencies/missions have extensive information about their activities on public websites. This information can help with additional questions the survey team might have regarding an activity.
- CONTACT INFORMATION CTO/ACTIVITY TECHNICAL OFFICER (all reporters): The name and contact information of the Technical Officer responsible for the activity.
- FUNDING ACCOUNTS (all reporters): All reporters are asked to provide the appropriation funding accounts from which the funding for the activity is drawn [for example, Development Assistance (DA) or Economic Support Fund (ESF)]. Multiple funding accounts may be chosen.
- TOTAL TCB FUNDING FOR ACTIVITY IN MULTIPLE COUNTRIES (all reporters): In previous TCB surveys, if the same activity took place in different countries it was reported as separate activities. The reporter is now able to indicate whether this activity takes place one or more countries and provide funding information for each country. There is also an opportunity to add country-specific descriptions.
- PROGRAM FRAMEWORK CODING (USAID and State reporters-only): The TCB Survey includes the Program Framework for USAID and State reporters.
- AWARD NUMBERS (USAID reporters-only): All USAID reporters are asked to submit the award numbers of procurement mechanisms (contract, grant, cooperative agreement) that fund the reported activity. That information is needed to track activities that span over several years. (To see where this number can be found on a USAID award refer to “Where to find USAID award numbers?” on page 22.)

SURVEY WILL BE OPEN: October 18–29, 2010
Welcome to the Trade Capacity Building Survey web site. In order to submit data, you will need a user name and password. If you do not already have a user name and password, they may be requested by e-mail from tcb@devtechsys.com. Please identify the department, agency, bureau, office, mission, or unit whose data you will be submitting when making that request. We advise you to read the Survey Submitter's Guide, 2010 before beginning the survey (the guide was also included in the e-mail with your user name and password). In particular, please review the "Checklist: What information do you need to complete the reporting?" Although the essential tasks of submitting TCB data are the same from previous years, there have been several changes made to the process. Those changes are designed to make data entry more convenient, as well as to improve the usefulness of the resulting database. Thank you, in advance, for your support and participation in this effort. After logging into your account, you will always start at the TCB Activity Summary page.

TRADE CAPACITY BUILDING 2010 SURVEY

Capacity Building for Customs Reform (CBCR)	Verify 2009 information	Begin 2010 survey for this activity Activity has ended, no 2010 information Activity continuing with no FY2010 obligation, but future obligations are planned
Investment, Trade, and Association Development (I-TRADE)	Verify 2009 information	Begin 2010 survey for this activity Activity has ended, no 2010 information Activity continuing with no FY2010 obligation, but future obligations are planned
Add a new 2010 activity Logout
NOTE: If you need to add a new 2009 activity or delete an activity, please contact the TCB Help Desk.

The top panel will list all activities previously entered, with options to verify FY2009 information and enter FY2010 information.

Each FY2009 activity must be verified. The purpose of this verification is to ensure that obligations entered in 2009 were correct and used accordingly. After verifying FY2009 entries, an activity may be continued into 2010 or marked as having ended in 2009.

If a 2009 activity is being continued into 2010, the activity title and activity description will be picked up from the 2009 data automatically. Any edits made to the activity title or description in 2010 will permanently edit the title and description for the activity as a whole (i.e., in both the 2009 and 2010 data). Therefore, the activity title and description should be written so as to be applicable over time. Activity information related to a specific year can be entered in the country description field later in the survey. Aside from the description and title, no other information is carried from the 2009 survey into the 2010 survey.

To enter a new activity for 2010 (i.e., one that is not a continuation of an activity from 2009) select "Add a new 2010 activity" at the bottom of this panel.

Add a new 2010 activity Logout

The bottom panel on the TCB Activity Summary page lists any activities which were removed from the 2009 TCB data. Data were eliminated for one of four reasons:

- another reporter entered the exact activity;
- the activity was determined not be trade capacity building, based on the criteria listed earlier;
- the amount was less than the minimum submission amount; or
- the activity submitted was in a non-developing or transitional economy.

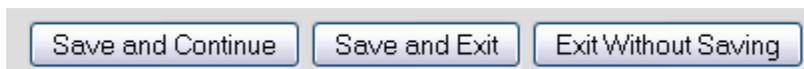

Step 3: Fill out the TCB survey

Choosing “Add a new 2010 activity” or “Begin 2010 survey for this activity”, will launch the 2010 TCB Survey. The survey takes you through a series of screens, asking questions about the activity in question.

As you move through the survey, a progress bar at the top of the screen will track your movement. At any time you may use the links on this bar to revisit an earlier page in the survey. However, you will not be able to jump ahead in the survey and certain information is carried over from one screen to the next.

Another helpful feature is the ability to save incrementally. It is not necessary to complete in one sitting the entire survey. You may “Save and Continue” if you want to save the information you have just entered and move to the next survey screen. Or you may “Save and Exit” if you want to save the information you have just entered but return to complete the survey at a later time. In addition, you may “Exit Without Saving” if you want to discard any changes made on the current screen.

NOTE: If you remain idle for more than twenty minutes on any given screen, your survey session will time out! This will cause you to lose any unsaved information on that particular screen and you will need to login again in order to continue the survey.

Web Site	http:// <input type="text"/>

Activity Title:

Type the activity title in the space provided. Names of strategic objectives, contractors, and other general titles should not be used. Please spell out acronyms. The activity title should not exceed 100 characters. Please keep in mind that if this activity occurs in multiple countries you do not want to name them in the activity title.

Example: Telecommunications Development Fund

Agency Id Code:

This optional field can be used to indicate internal identification numbers for activities. The space is provided in order to help the submitter match activities to any agency specific system.

Activity Description:

Please provide a brief narrative describing the activity. Ensure that the description reflects the trade-related portion of the activity. Activity descriptions should reflect the TCB categories that you will choose later in the survey (for more information on the TCB categories see the TCB Definitions Annex). Your description should include how TCB foreign assistance is transferred to the recipients, e.g., technical assistance, training, resident advisors, or commodity transfers. If it is possible, provide a quantifiable example of the activity. For example, the description of a workshop on WTO issues could include the estimate the number of participants -- if known. Limit your description to 500 characters; please note this number is lower than in previous surveys. The survey tool will allow you to monitor the number of characters and alert you if you exceeded the limit.

Examples:

TDA: The U.S. Trade and Development Agency is providing funding for a Telecommunications Development Fund Technical Assistance (TA) project in Afghanistan that had previously been approved. The activity will assist the Afghanistan Telecommunications Regulatory Authority (ATRA) to increase rural telecommunications development by advising it on how best to implement and administer the newly created Telecommunications Development Fund (TDF). Potential development impacts include infrastructure, human capacity building, and technology transfer.

USAID/Mozambique: The Rural Financial Services activity provides technical assistance to identify and support the development of financial services for a wide-range of rural businesses involved in agricultural production. The goal of the activity is to improve the competitiveness of Mozambican agro-exports by ensuring adequate and reasonably-priced financing. In addition to the direct technical assistance provided by USAID, the program leverages significant host-country contributions and uses the Development Credit Authority to leverage private financial institution resources.

USAID/El Salvador: The U.S. Agency for International Development Mission in El Salvador will implement the Small Infrastructure Activity at the community level specifically to help provide better access to the production areas and job marketing. It is estimated that USAID will be implementing at least 12 small infrastructure projects during fiscal year 2006.

If any accomplishments regarding this project are known, please try to include them in your activity description. Accomplishments are not necessarily “success stories” that were prepared for publication, but can be more informal descriptions of what was achieved as a result of the activity. For example, if your activity’s purpose is to help establish a business association, you might note if one or more business associations were formed and how many businesses and individuals are members.

If this activity is reported for several countries the activity description provided here should be general in nature. More country specific information can be provided later in the survey.

Activity Website:

If this activity has a website, please provide its web address.

FY2010 TCB Obligation:

TCB Obligation
FY10 Amount *	$ <input type="text"/>

IMPORTANT – This question includes an important concept in the TCB Survey. If an activity takes place in several countries, for example “Combating Child Labor through Education” might benefit Egypt and Morocco, it should be recorded as one activity rather than two.

- If this activity benefits multiple countries or regions, please report the total obligation in FY2010 for this activity for all countries combined here. You will be asked to identify separately the obligations for each country later in the survey.
- If you are reporting on a large activity that has a trade component, only report the funding for the trade-related portion of the activity. The funding related to trade capacity building, once you have estimated its level, should be reported in dollar terms and on an obligation or planned obligation basis.

Funding Account:

Please select the appropriation funding account, such as Development Assistance (DA) or Economic Support Fund (ESF). You may enter multiple accounts.

To narrow down the list of funding accounts, select the "Agency Filter." This filter will allow you to select an agency and then only see funding accounts associated with that agency in the associated dropdown list. For example, by choosing USAID you will only see funding account specifically associated with USAID.

Amount (in dollars)

Enter the funding amount for each of the accounts identified. For example, if the total FY2010 funding amount for an activity is $1,000,000 and it is funded with 50 percent DA funds and 50 percent ESF funds, select DA from the first dropdown list, and type $500,000 in the amount field next to it. In the second dropdown list, select ESF and type $500,000 in the corresponding amount field.

TIP: Once you have entered an amount, move out of that input field (for example, by tabbing to the next form element or clicking outside of the input field) in order to update the running total at the bottom of the page.

Select the implementing agency for the activity from the drop-down list.

NOTE: Your agency is considered to be the implementer if your funds are not transferred to another USG agency or USAID operating unit in the course of carrying out the activity. If your funds are transferred to another USG agency or USAID operating unit in the course of carrying out this activity, that agency or unit is considered to be the implementer.

Your agency, mission, or unit is still considered to be the funder and implementer if your funds are transferred to an NGO, a multilateral organization, or any other contractor.

Also, if your mission “buys-in” to an existing USAID/EGAT mechanism like Support for Trade Capacity Building (STCB) or Trade Enhancement for the Services Sector (TESS), you should report as EGAT/EG is the implementer and USAID/“your mission” as the funder. EGAT Procurement mechanisms can be found on the USAID intranet at http://inside.usaid.gov/eg/contract_grant_svcs.htm.

After selecting a specific agency, a sub-agency drop down will appear, if applicable. These are the sub-agencies associated with the agency you have chosen.

In addition, it is also possible that some activities are global in nature. For example, an awareness-raising WTO workshop to which delegates from developing and transition countries world-wide are invited would be considered a global, non-specified activity. In this case, select "Global".

Please enter a total TCB amount for each funding account/implementing agency/country combination (1). Then select "Edit TCB Categories" to provide a breakdown of that amount by individual TCB categories (2). The symbols to the left of the Edit buttons (3) will help you to keep track of whether or not the amounts entered by TCB category sum to the amount entered for the particular funding account/implementing agency/country combination. In addition, the amounts entered for each funding account/implementing agency/country combination should sum to the amount entered earlier for the funding account (4).

The TCB Categories distinguish the separate TCB components implemented within an activity, and they are used to report both at the country and at the aggregate level.

What category or categories does your activity fall under?

Definitions of the TCB categories are contained in the annex. You are being asked to exercise a reasonable amount of judgment in making the best estimate of the percentage allocation. Note: Below are a few key points to bear in mind.

- Do not confuse non-WTO-consistent assistance with WTO-consistent assistance. For example, TCB assistance to promote the agricultural export capacity of a country should be reported on the line "Trade-Related Agricultural Development." By contrast, TCB assistance to a country in its participation in the WTO Agreement on Agriculture—or participation in a WTO-consistent Agricultural Agreement under a regional trade arrangement—should be reported on the WTO-consistent line "Agreement on Agriculture." Similarly, TCB to help a country's customs service to become more efficient should be reported under the "Customs Operations & Administration" a sub-component of Trade Facilitation. By contrast, TCB assistance to a country in its participation in a WTO-consistent Agreement on

Customs Valuation Methods should be reported on the WTO-consistent line "Agreement on Customs Valuation Methods."

- Do not confuse the type of TCB assistance provided with the trade sector for which capacity is being built. For example, the TCB activity may include providing services to a private sector group. This should not be reported under "Services Trade Development" unless the capacity to engage in services sector trade is being enhanced. Similarly, an activity to build trade capacity might involve the provision of financial support or guarantees. This should not be reported under "Financial Sector Development" unless the activity is expanding the financial sector itself.
- Do not confuse "competitiveness building" with "competition policy." TCB assistance to enhance the export competitiveness of a country should be reported on the appropriate line. This could be any of the categories, depending on the nature of the "competitiveness activity." The TCB category "Competition Policy & Foreign Investment Incentives" refers specifically to work on competition policies (or antitrust policies) and the regime in place for foreign investment and foreign investment incentives.
- Legal and Institutional Reform activities should be coded to Governance/Transparency and Inter-Agency Coordination.

Is the funding for this activity part of the African Growth Competitiveness Initiative (AGCI)?

Please indicate through a Yes/No answer if your activity falls into the African Global Competitiveness Initiative (AGCI).

The African Global Competitiveness Initiative (AGCI) is a $200 million, five-year Presidential Initiative aimed at promoting the export competitiveness of enterprises in sub-Saharan Africa (SSA) in order to expand African trade with the United States, other international trading partners and regionally within SSA. AGCI builds on the African Growth and Opportunity Act (AGOA) and works with other donor initiatives, including the World Bank’s Making Finance Work for Africa and the multilateral Infrastructure Consortium for Africa.

Does this activity support trade capacity building in the cotton production sector, or in cotton-related sectors, of the countries in which it operates?

Please indicate through a Yes/No answer if your activity supports trade capacity building in the cotton production sector, or in cotton-related sectors.

As a result of the WTO Ministerial in Hong Kong in 2005, the Director-General of the WTO established a consultative framework mechanism on cotton. With input from the USG and other donors, the WTO issued a report on TCB activities in this area (November 2007). Updates of that report, also relying on USG and other donor input, are expected in the future.

By answering this cotton production sector question yes or no, you will be greatly assisting the ability of the USG to accurately report on its support for cotton sector production.

Every USG agency has standard methods to monitor and evaluate its operations. However, in some cases, USG activities are subject to additional and specific monitoring and evaluation. Has this activity, or a predecessor activity, had its results monitored or has it been evaluated in such a specific way?

Please indicate through a Yes/No answer if your activity has been monitored and/or evaluated in such an additional or specific manner. If the answer is yes, also provide a website address for any reports, if available.

The USG and the rest of the trade capacity building donor community have emphasized the importance of monitoring and evaluating TCB assistance. For example, the 2005 Paris Declaration on Aid Effectiveness (OECD) and the 2006 Recommendations of the WTO Task Force on Aid for Trade stressed the importance of monitoring and evaluating the results of development co-operation, including trade-related assistance.

By answering this monitoring and evaluation question yes or no, you will be greatly assisting the ability of the USG to accurately report on its support for effective monitoring and evaluation.

For activities in countries which are developing country participants in the Integrated Framework (IF) process, does this activity support one or more of the priorities identified in the Diagnostic Trade Integration Study (DTIS)?

Please indicate through a Yes/No answer if your activity supports one or more of the priorities identified by the DTIS.

For more than a decade, the United States and other donors have used the Integrated Framework (IF) to address the complexity of trade-related needs in the Least Developed Countries (LDCs). The IF process promotes good governance and LDC ownership of the reform agenda, as well as improved coordination of the delivery of trade-related technical assistance amongst bilateral and multilateral donors within a coherent policy framework. Once LDCs complete the first stages of IF participation, a Diagnostic Trade Integration Study (DTIS) is used to identify priorities for technical assistance needs. To date, thirty LDCs have a DTIS in place.

By answering this DTIS question yes or no, you will be greatly assisting the ability of the USG to accurately report on its support for the Integrated Framework process.

By what mechanism was the money transferred for the portion of this activity with funding from Account A and implementation by Agency B?

If this activity is funded by USAID, but implemented by another agency, was it transferred via a 632(a) or 632(b) mechanism?

From the agreement to transfer the funds "Participating Agency Program Agreement between USAID and [other Agency]" – form AID 306-1 – you should be able to find the document showed below. It explains the means of transfer from USAID to the implementing agency.

Annex: Trade Capacity Building Category Definitions

WTO in General: Includes assistance in two broad areas – WTO Awareness and Participation and WTO Accession. If the country is actively engaged in the WTO Accession process, then all assistance related to WTO and its Agreements should be reported as “WTO Accession.” If the country is not in the accession phase, then all assistance of a general or “awareness” nature should be reported on the line “WTO Awareness and Participation.”

Activities to assist countries with specific WTO Agreements should be reported on the relevant line, using the follow descriptions of the agreements.

Brief Description of WTO Agreements (Descriptions were adapted from the WTO website.) For more information about any of the agreements follow the link to the WTO website

Agreements on Trade in Goods: Determine how to resolve conflicts between provisions of the pre-1995 GATT and the current WTO.

(http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#General)

Agreement on Agriculture: Sets up significant first step towards fairer competition and less distortion. It includes specific commitments by WTO member governments to improve market access and reduce trade-distorting subsidies in agriculture. These commitments are being implemented over a six-year period (10 years for developing countries) that began in 1995. (http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#aAgreement)

Agreement on Sanitary and Phyto-Sanitary: Sets out the basic rules on food safety and animal and plant health standards to ensure that food is safe to eat. Also attempts to ensure that safety regulations are not being used to protect domestic producers. It allows countries to set their own standards, but it also says regulations must be based on science. (http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#bAgreement)

Agreement on Technical Barriers to Trade: Technical regulations and product standards may vary from country to country. If regulations are set arbitrarily, they could be used as an excuse for protectionism. The agreement tries to ensure that regulations, standards, testing and certification procedures do not create unnecessary obstacles. (http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#dAgreement)

Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Investment Measures (TRIMS): This agreement applies only to measures that affect trade in goods. Recognizing that certain investment measures can have trade-restrictive and distorting effects, it states that no Member shall apply a measure that is prohibited by the provisions of GATT Article III (national treatment) or Article XI (quantitative restrictions). (http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#eAgreement)

Agreement on Anti-Dumping: If a company exports a product at a price lower than the price it normally charges on its own home market, it is said to be “dumping” the product.

This agreement sets rules on how governments may react to dumping — it disciplines anti-dumping actions. (http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#fAgreement)

Agreement on Customs Valuation Methods: For importers, the process of estimating the value of a product at customs presents problems that can be just as serious as the actual duty rate charged. The agreement aims for a fair, uniform and neutral system for valuation of goods for customs purposes — a system conforming to commercial realities and outlawing the use of arbitrary or fictitious customs values. (http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#gAgreement)

Agreement on Rules of Origin: Determining where a product comes from is no longer easy when raw materials and parts criss-cross the globe to be used as inputs in scattered manufacturing plants. Rules of origin are important in implementing such trade policy instruments as anti-dumping and countervailing duties, origin marking, and safeguard measures. (http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#iAgreement)

Agreement on Import Licensing Procedures: Says that import licensing should be simple, transparent and predictable so as not to become an obstacle to trade. For example, the agreement requires governments to publish sufficient information for traders to know how and why the licenses are granted. It also describes how countries should notify the WTO when they introduce new import licensing procedures or change existing procedures. (http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#jAgreement)

Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures (CVM): Disciplines the use of subsidies, and it regulates the actions countries can take to counter the effects of subsidies. Under the agreement, a country can use the WTO's dispute-settlement procedure to seek the withdrawal of the subsidy or the removal of its adverse effects. Or the country can launch its own investigation and ultimately charge extra duty ("countervailing duty") on subsidized imports that are found to be hurting domestic producers. (http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#kAgreement)

Agreement on Safeguards: Members may take a "safeguard" action (i.e., restrict imports of a product temporarily) to protect a specific domestic industry from an increase in imports of any product which is causing, or which is threatening to cause, serious injury. The agreement broke new ground in prohibiting "gray area" measures and setting time limits ("sunset clause") on all safeguard actions. (http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#lAgreement)

General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS): Inspired by essentially the same objectives as the GATT: improving trade/ investment conditions through multilaterally agreed disciplines; stabilizing trade relations through policy bindings on an MFN basis; and achieving progressive liberalization through subsequent rounds of negotiations. (http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#mAgreement)

Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS): An attempt to narrow the gaps in the way these rights are protected around the world, and to bring them under common international rules. (http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#nAgreement)

Agreement on Disputes Settlement: The main WTO agreement on settling disputes, with ultimate responsibility for settling disputes lying with member governments themselves, through the Dispute Settlement Body.

(http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#Understanding)

Agreements on Trade Policy Review Mechanism: Surveillance of national trade policies is a fundamentally important activity running throughout the work of the WTO. At the center of this work is the Trade Policy Review Mechanism (TPRM). All WTO members are reviewed, the frequency of each country's review varying according to its share of world trade.

(http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/29-tprm_e.htm)

Agreement on Government Procurement: There are three areas of work on government procurement: transparency in government procurement, government procurement in services, and the Government Procurement Agreement itself, a "plurilateral" agreement signed by some WTO members.

(http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/ursum_e.htm#gproc)

Other specific WTO Agreements: All activities to assist participation in any specific WTO Agreements not listed above should be reported on this line.

(http://www.wto.org/english/docs_e/legal_e/legal_e.htm)

Trade Facilitation has six components:

- Customs Operation and Administration is assistance to help countries modernize and improve their customs offices.
- E-Commerce and Information Technologies (IT) is assistance to help countries acquire and use IT to promote trade by creating business networks and disseminating market information.
- Export Promotion is assistance to increase market opportunities for developing country producers.
- Business Services and Training are support to improve the associations and networks in the business sector, as well as to enhance the skills of business people engaged in trade.
- Regional Trade Agreements (RTA) represents assistance to an RTA or to an individual country that increases the ability of the RTA to facilitate trade. It can also include assistance to a potential member of an RTA that improves the analytical capacity of the country's government with respect to RTA issues. It is not intended to include TCB assistance in a specific area that is being provided under the auspices of an RTA. For example, technical assistance to help COMESA facilitate trade among its member countries would be included in this component. However, technical assistance to help COMESA member countries comply with SPS standards should be reported on the lines for Trade-Related Agricultural Development or the WTO Agreement on Sanitary & Phyto-Sanitary Standards.
- Other Trade Facilitation includes support to increase trade flows that is not categorized in one of the other five components.

TRADE CAPACITY BUILDING D A T A B A S E

Human Resources and Labor Standards: Support of labor standards, worker rights, trade unions, workforce development, business education, and the social aspects of liberalization.

Financial Sector Development and Good Governance: Includes financial sector work, monetary and fiscal policy, exchange rates, commodity markets, and capital markets.

Physical and Economic Infrastructure: Assistance to establish trade-related telecoms, transport, ports, airports, power, water, and industrial zones.

Environmental Trade and Standards: Includes assistance to establish environmental standard or to promote environmental technology.

Competition Policy and Foreign Investment Incentives: Support for the design and implementation of antitrust laws, as well as laws and regulations related to investment and investor protections.

Trade-Related Agricultural: Includes support for trade-related aspects of the agriculture and agribusiness sector. Support that is intended to help countries participate in the WTO Agreements on Agriculture or SPS should not be included.

Services Trade: Includes all service industry sectors and two sub-components are specified – Tourism Sector Development and Other Services Development.

Governance/Transparency and Interagency Coordination: Includes support for institutional reform to improve governance and make policies more transparent, as well as assistance to help the different agencies of a host country government function more effectively in the trade policy arena.

Other Trade Capacity Building: This line should be used to report a TCB activity that does not fit into any of the development-related sectors or any of the WTO-related categories. If you use this category, please elaborate on the reasons why in the notes textbox that immediately follows this category.
