PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

A. Purpose of Grant

The purpose of this Grant is to provide partial support for a three (3) day seminar during the period October 23 through 26, 1977 to inform PVOs of AID's environmental policies and procedures and to open a dialogue between PVOs and U.S. environmental interest groups.

B. Specific Objectives

Specific objectives of the Grant are as follows:

1. Obtaining participation in the planning and execution of the seminar by appropriate representatives of PVOs and U.S. environmental public interest groups.
2. Arranging for preparation of two background papers by representatives of the PVOs and the environmental groups.
3. Arranging for preparation of two case studies for use by the participants in developing practical approaches to dealing with environment/development issues.
4. Arranging for preparation of a guide to sources of reference materials necessary for design and implementation of environmentally sound development activities.
5. Selection of participants and issuance of invitations to the seminar.
6. Arrangements for the conference including rooms for accommodations and meetings.
7. Preparation of a final report to AID on the seminar including an evaluation of the seminar and recommendations for possible future Agency activities.

C. Implementation

1. The Mohonk Trust is a nonprofit organization in New Paltz, New York, dedicated to a concern for international understanding and protection of the environment. Consistent with these principles, the Trust proposes to sponsor a conference to initiate a dialogue between representatives from U. S., private, voluntary agencies actively pursuing international development projects and U. S., private, voluntary agencies concerned with environment on an international level. Since the maintenance of a sound environment is a necessary precedent of sustained, long range development, the work of these two groups is closely related. But, to our knowledge, the two groups have never met together to discuss their mutual concerns.

2. Assuming the dialogue is conducted in a positive and open atmosphere, the Trust thinks the proposed dialogue might have the following immediate results:

- The environmentalists would increase their understanding of the aims and needs of the development community.
- Development agency personnel would increase their awareness of the concerns and activities of the environmentalists and their potential as a resource.

The Trust hopes increased interaction between the two groups would lead to increased cooperation which would:

- Supplement AID efforts to implement new environmental programs and policies.
- Ultimately benefit the international community as the effectiveness of development projects would be heightened.

3. In October 1976 representatives of Hobson Trust were encouraged by the AID Office of Environmental Affairs and the Office of Private and Voluntary Cooperation to pursue the possibility of sponsoring a conference. After consultations with the Trustees of the Trust, a Task Force was organized.

4. In February 1977 a meeting of the Task Force was held in New York City to determine the receptivity to the idea of a conference. Fourteen representatives from development agencies attended. Three environmental groups were represented. The participants expressed their support of the Trust's efforts and an interest in the proposed conference. Both types of organizations professed a lack of knowledge of the other's activities and concerns.

5. Following the February meeting, a small Steering Committee was named.

The committee consists of representatives from:

International Division of the YMCA
Technoserve, Inc.
Natural Resources Defense Council
Sierra Club Office of International Environmental Affairs
Church World Service
American Council of Voluntary Agencies for Foreign Service
AID Office of Private and Voluntary Cooperation
AID office of Environmental Affairs
Mohonk Trust.

6. The Steering Committee proposes a 3 day conference to be held October 23-26, 1977 at the Mohonk Mountain House, New Paltz, N.Y. Participation would be limited to 60 persons: representatives from approximately 40 development agencies and 20 environmental groups. Preconference papers would be circulated to the conference participants. One paper, written by the Executive Director of the American Council of Voluntary Agencies for Foreign Service, would explain the work of the development agencies. A second paper, written by a representative of Natural Resources Defense Council, would explain the activities of the environmental groups. A keynote speaker would begin the conference by defining the common interests of environment and development. For the remainder of the first day, a case study would be discussed by a panel of representatives from both types of organizations. The second day of the conference would focus on a second case study in which participants would be divided into small groups and asked to design a project to deal with the situation described in the case study. An evening workshop session on writing environmental impact assessment statements would be held as well as a workshop where agencies could seek advice on current project problems. A third world view of environment and development would be presented by a luncheon speaker. The Co-Directors of Clark University's International Development Program have agreed to prepare the two case studies. The Trust anticipates a publication based on the conference proceedings.

Best Available Document

7. This conference is viewed as an initial effort in a possible series of opportunities to increase understanding between the two types of organizations.

D. Reporting

A final report is to be prepared by the Mohonk Trust on the results of the seminar and to include recommendations on the need for further AID activities related to the seminar. This report is to reflect the views not only of Mohonk Trust, but also the members of the steering committee representing the PVOs and the environmental public interest groups. The report should be submitted to TA/OST in draft form no later than 45 days after the completion of the seminar, with a final report due 30 days thereafter (original and four copies).

AID follows generally accepted auditing practices in determining that there is proper accounting and use of grant funds. The Grantee agrees to include the requirements of this clause in any subordinate agreement hereunder.

c. Refunds (Oct. 1974)

(2) Funds obligated hereunder but not disbursed to the Grantee at the time the grant expires or is terminated, shall revert to AID, except for funds encumbered by the Grantee by a legally binding transaction applicable to this Grant. With regard to the employment of persons in the U.S. under this Grant, Grantee agrees to take all reasonable steps to ensure equality of opportunity in its employment practices without regard to race, religion, sex, color or national origin of such persons and that, in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, when work funded by this Grant is performed in the U.S. no person shall, on the grounds of race, religion, sex, color or national origin, be excluded from participation, be denied benefits, or be subjected to discrimination. This Grant may be terminated at any time, in whole or in part, by the Grant Officer upon written notice to the Grantee, whenever for any reason he shall determine that such termination is in the best interest of the Government. Upon receipt of and in accordance with such notice, the Grantee shall forthwith take immediate action to minimize all expenditures and obligations financed by this Grant, and shall cancel such unliquidated obligations whenever possible. Except as provided below, no further reimbursement shall be made after the effective date of termination, and the Grantee shall within thirty (30) calendar days after the effective date of such termination repay to the Grantor all unexpended portions of funds theretofore paid by the Grantor to the Grantee which are not otherwise obligated by a legally binding transaction applicable to this Grant. Should the funds paid by the Grantor to the Grantee prior to the effective date of this termination of this Grant, be insufficient to cover the Grantee's obligations pursuant to the aforementioned legally binding transaction, the Grantee may submit to the Grantor within (90) calendar days after the effective date of such termination a written claim covering such obligations, and, subject to the limitations contained in the Grant, the Grant Officer shall determine the amount or amounts to be paid by the Grantor to the Grantee under such claim.

f. Officials Not to Benefit (Oct. 1974)

No member of or delegate to Congress or resident commissioner shall be admitted to any share or part of this Grant or to any benefit that may arise therefrom; but this provision shall not be construed to extend to this Grant if made with a corporation for its general benefit.

g. Covenant Against Contingent Fee (Oct. 1974)

The Grantee warrants that no person or selling agency has been employed or retained to solicit or secure this Grant upon an agreement or understanding for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee except bona fide employees or bona fide established commercial or selling agencies maintained by the Grantee for the purpose of securing business. For breach or violation of this warranty, AID shall have the right to cancel this Grant without liability or, in its discretion, to deduct from the Grant amount, or otherwise recover, the full amount of each commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee.

Nonliability (Oct. 1974)

AID does not assume liability with respect to any claims for damages arising out of work supported by its grants.

Grantee may permit a subgrantee (or the Grantee on his behalf) to procure commodities already in its country (with the exception of contraceptives, drug products, pharmaceuticals, and motor vehicles) in an amount not exceeding a total cost of $5,000 per subgrantee per annum without regard to limitations, rules and procedures applicable to commodity transactions financed by AID. Such commodities shall not be considered "Already in its country" within the meaning of the aforementioned exception if the commodities have been imported or otherwise brought into the country at the request of the Grantee or subgrantee. (5) All international air shipments made by the Grantee, to be financed hereunder, shall be made on U.S. flag carriers unless shipment would, in the judgement of the Grantee, be delayed an unreasonable time awaiting a U.S. carrier, either at the point of origin or transshipment, provided that the Grantee certifies to the facts in the documents retained as part of his Grant records for post audit by AID. All international ocean shipment made by the Grantee, to be financed hereunder, shall be made on U.S. flag vessels. (2) Travel to certain countries shall, at AID's option, be funded from U.S.-owned local currency. When AID intends to exercise this option, it will so notify the Grantee after receipt of advice of intent to travel required above. AID will issue a Government Transportation Request (GTR) which the Grantee may exchange for tickets, or AID will issue the tickets directly. Use of such U.S.-owned currencies will constitute a dollar charge to this grant.

(3) The Grantee agrees to travel by the most direct and expeditious route, and to use less than first class transportation unless such use will result in unreasonable delay or increased costs.

(a) All international air travel under this Grant shall be made on United States flag carriers. Exceptions to this rule will be allowed in the following situations provided that the Grantee certifies to the facts in the voucher or other documents retained as part of his Grant records to support his claim for reimbursement and for post audit:

2. Where the departure time, routing, or other features of a United States carrier would interfere with or prevent the satisfactory performance of official business;

3. Where a scheduled flight by a United States carrier is delayed because of weather, mechanical, or other conditions to such an extent that use of a non-United States carrier is in the Government's interest;

4. Where the appropriate class of accommodations is available on both United States and non-United States carriers, but the use of the United States carrier will result in higher total United States dollar cost to the grant due to additional per diem or other expenses; and

5. Where the appropriate class of accommodations is available only on a non-United States carrier and the cost of transportation and related per diem on the non-U.S. carrier is less than the cost of available accommodations of another class on a United States carrier and related per diem.

(b) All international air shipments under this grant shall be made on United States flag carriers unless shipment would, in the judgment of the Grantee, be delayed an unreasonable time awaiting a United States carrier either at point of origin or transshipment; provided that the Grantee certifies to the facts in the vouchers or other documents retained as part of the Grant records to support his claim for reimbursement and for post audit.

(4) Travel allowances shall be reimbursed in accordance with the Federal Travel Regulations (FTR).

(2) The Grantee shall provide the Project Manager with one copy of all published works developed under the Grant. The Grantee shall provide the Project Manager with lists of other written work produced under the Grant.

(3) In the event grant funds are used to underwrite the cost of publishing, in lieu of the publisher assuming this cost as is the normal practice, any profits or royalties up to the amount of such cost shall be credited to the Grant.

(4) The Grantee is permitted to secure copyright to any publication produced or composed under the Grant. Provided, the Grantee agrees to and does hereby grant to the Government a royalty-free, non-exclusive and irrevocable license throughout the world to use, duplicate, disclose, or dispose of such publications in any manner and for any purpose and to permit others to do so.

(b) to transfer title to any such items to the Government in accordance with any written request therefor issued by the Grant Officer at any time prior to final payment under the Grant.

r. Subordinate Agreements (Oct. 1974)

The placement of subordinate agreements (e.g., leases, options, etc.), grants, or contracts with other organizations, firms or institutions and the provisions of such subordinate agreements are subject to prior written consent of the Grant Officer if they will be funded hereunder. In no event shall any such subordinate agreement, grant, or contract be on a cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost basis. Subordinate contractors (including suppliers) shall be selected on a competitive basis to the maximum practicable extent consistent with the obligations and requirements of this Grant.

s. Salaries (Oct. 1974)

All salaries, wages, fees, and stipends reimbursed under this Grant shall be in accordance with the Grantee's policy and practice as reviewed and approved by the Grant Officer. (2) The sale of personal property or automobiles by Grantee employees and their dependents in the foreign country to which they are assigned shall be subject to the same limitations and prohibitions which apply to direct-hire AID personnel employed by the mission, except as this may conflict with host government regulations.

(3) Other than work to be performed under this Grant for which an employee or consultant is assigned by the Grantee, no regular or short term employee or consultant of the Grantee shall engage, directly or indirectly, either in his own name or in the name or through an agency of another person, in any business, profession or occupation in the foreign countries to which he is assigned.

(4) The Grantee's employees, while in a foreign country, are expected to show respect for its conventions, customs, and institutions, to abide by its applicable laws and regulations, and not to interfere in its internal political affairs.

(5) On the written request of the Grant Officer or of a cognizant Mission Director, the Grantee will terminate the assignment of any individual to any work under the Grant and, as requested, will use its best efforts to cause the return to the United States of the individual from overseas or his departure from a foreign country or a particular foreign locale.
