FOREWORD

This bibliography lists books and publications in the field of public safety and related fields. The list was compiled from commercial book indexes and publishers' catalogs. As detailed a description as available has been given for each book listed. The prices are those currently listed; however, in a few cases it is possible that some have increased. An effort was made to list only those books in print at the present time.

Annotations have been supplied for some of the texts; however, these were prepared from publishers' descriptions and therefore are of somewhat limited value. No evaluation of the books listed has been made.
