Definitions

Accreditation is a process of certification of competency authority, or credibility. It provides for public notification that an institution or program meets standards of quality set forth by an accrediting agency; it also reflects the institution or program as not only to meet standards, but to continuously seek ways in which to enhance the quality of education and training provided in this instance the CPD.

Certification is the confirmation that a client operates in line with a set of requirements provided by a standard setter (UMDPC).

Therefore accreditation is confirmation and recognition of technical competence while certification is confirmation that prescribed requirements are fulfilled.

CPD Providers: There are 2 categories of CPD Providers namely accredited CPD providers and non-accredited CPD Providers.

- a) Accredited CPD Providers are the professionals, specific higher education institutions and departments, professional associations or formally constituted professional interest groups who meet the specified criteria and have been accredited by the CPD accreditation and Certification committee.
- b) Non-Accredited CPD providers are the professionals, specific higher education institutions and departments, professional associations or formally constituted professional interest groups who can be recognized by the CPD accreditation and Certification committee.

Foreword

The provision of Continuous Professional Development (CPD) is the principal mandate of the Uganda Medical and Dental Practitioners Council as per UMDPC Act 1996. It is therefore a duty of UMDPC to ensure that all Medical and Dental practitioners acquire up to date knowledge and skills in order for them to provide quality health services to their clients. In the advance of modern trends in medicine and technology, the need for one to upgrade is clearly important. It is also a requirement for all Medical and Dental Practitioners to present evidence of prescribed CPD units as a prerequisite for acquisition of the annual practicing licence in Uganda.

The mandate for provision of CPD to Medical and Dental Practitioners can however be delegated to other agencies that have capacity to offer the service. This is done through accreditation of those providers that will be done every 3 years. Efforts will be made to encourage as many agencies as possible especially those in rural areas to be involved in this activity.

In light of this, UMDPC has introduced these guidelines that will enable accredited CPD providers operationalize this function. These guidelines are hinged on the policy framework of in-service training of MOH and they stipulate: the roles of the UMDPC and the accredited provider; methods of CPD delivery that will be employed including online programmes; and the process of monitoring and evaluating the CPD.

Lastly the document will be a reference to efforts of the East African Community joint Boards/Councils to standardize practice in the region and CPD is one of the areas. UMDPC will work with other stakeholders in the MOH to ensure effective delivery of this function so that Medical and Dental Practitioners receive quality CPD which could eventually translate into better delivery of health services to all the people of Uganda.

Ass Prof Okullo H Joel

Chairman, Uganda Medical and Dental Practitioners Council

Introduction

This document gives information on the CPD providers seeking accreditation of CPD activities for instance, the CPD providers seeking accreditation of CPD activities must have a detailed description of: purpose and mission, education planning and administrative arrangements of the organization/ institution. It also offers guidance on allocation of credits, documentation of what the CPD provider must undertake, quality assurance and monitoring and evaluation. It also gives samples of a CPD Application Form for Accreditation, and other documents that should be completed and attached.

To keep up to date with developments in their specialties and in other fields such as (Ethics, Professionalism, Human rights, Medical and legal issues, Leadership and Management, Team Building) which have a bearing on their professional practice, the medical and dental practitioners must undertake CPD. The competencies that practitioners will gain from accredited CPD activities would improve their performances, and ultimately raise the quality of the health care they provide to the patients/clients and communities they serve.

The functions of the UMDPC are to:

- Monitor and exercise general supervision and control over and maintenance of professional medical and dental educational standards including continuing education.
- Promote the maintenance and enforcement of professional medical and dental ethics.
- Exercise general supervision of medical and dental practice at all levels.
- Exercise disciplinary control over medical and dental practitioners.
- Protect the society from abuse of medical and dental care and research on human beings.
- Advise and make recommendations to the Government on matters relating to the medical and dental professions.
- Exercise any power and perform any duty authorized or required by this Act or any other law.
- Disseminate to the medical and dental practitioners and the public, ethics relating to doctor-patient rights and obligations.
- Perform any other function or act relating to medical or dental practice as the Minister may direct for the purposes of discharging its functions under this Act.

The UMDPC has therefore developed these guidelines to inform accreditation of CPD providers, programs and the beneficiaries.

1. BACKGROUND

Education plays a vital role in the development of a nation; therefore, there is a premium on both quantity (amount of it) and quality (relevance and excellence) of medical education programmes offered in form of Continuing Professional Development.

The Uganda Medical and Dental Practitioners Council and the other Health Professionals and Managers have from time to time noted mistakes made by doctors practicing at different levels, and the majority of the mistakes are due to inadequate knowledge, skills and improper attitude. Furthermore, there are instances where mistakes and errors have been made due to new technologies in health care that doctors have not been exposed to/learned. The majority of those mistakes/ errors would have been prevented if the doctors participated in CPD.

The Medical and Dental Practitioners Statute October 1996 indicates that all medical and dental practitioners shall undertake CPD in order to renew their practicing licenses. The UMDPC therefore has put in place Minimum Standards in form of guidelines for the CPD to assist practitioners to remain relevant in the practice of medicine.

2. AIMS AND OBJECTIVES OF CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

2.1 Aims of Continuing Professional Development

The aim of CPD is to continuously improve quality of care provided by the Medical and Dental practitioners to individuals, families and communities they serve.

- To increase technical/professional knowledge in fields related to health professional practices such as: Health Care delivery, Leadership, Management, Communication, etc.
- To improve skills needed for service delivery
- To Influence attitudes of the Medical and Dental practitioners in the way they should provide health care delivery in terms of Leadership, Management, and Communication at work.

2.2 Objectives of Continuing Professional Development

The objectives of these guidelines are to ensure that:

- All medical and dental practitioners participate in accredited CPD programs so that the quality of services they provide to individuals and communities is of the acceptable standard of care.
- Demonstrate to patients, the general public and peers that Medical and Dental practitioners participate in accredited CPD activities throughout their careers.
- All Medical and Dental practitioners have access to educational interventions and not limiting it to a few privileged ones and/or to those identified to be underperforming.
- Provide a standardized and easily accessible mechanism for all Medical and Dental practitioners to document their participation in accredited CPD activities.
- There is a standard for accrediting providers of CPD and ensure that CPD courses follow nationally approved standards to provide continuity across the various courses by different providers.
- There is equity in the provision of CPD to all the Medical and Dental Practitioners in Uganda.

3. PURPOSE OF THE ACCREDITATION AND CERTIFICATION GUIDELINES

The guidelines set out to:

- Provide guidance on the importance of the doctors to; take part/ participate and demand for CPD, establish when and where to seek for CPD, find out the requirements for those seeking accreditation to provide CPD and what a CPD activity should be.
- Inform the Medical and Dental Practitioners and the public, the accredited institutions or training programs that meet standards of quality set forth by the Council for providing CPD.
- Encourage the practitioners to continuously seek/demand CPD as a vehicle to enhance their ability to provide quality health care.
- Streamline the CPD for the Medical and Dental Professionals in Uganda.

4. ACCREDITATION AND CERTIFICATION OF THE CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

4.1 Types of accreditation

The CPD Accreditation and Certification Committee may grant one of the following:

Full Accreditations (prepare and award accreditation certificate): This will be granted to the intending CPD provider who fulfils all the set requirements.

Provisional Accreditation: This will be granted to the intending CPD provider who has not yet fulfilled all the requirements, but intends to do so within 6 months.

4.2 The Continuing Education Units (CEUs)

The duration of accreditation of an activity will extend from the date of decision by specialty committee for a period of three years. During that period the CPD activity can be delivered over and over again. Just before it expires the CPD provider will have to re-apply for re-accreditation citing updates and improvements based on evaluation feedback.

4.3 Rationale for Doctors to participate and demand for CPD

Continuing Professional Development means maintaining and enhancing professional knowledge, skills and the right attitude related to the professional lives of medical and dental practitioners. It is also essential to them because it continues to ensure professional competence to practice, taking in practical experience of a professional. Hence, it is an ongoing process and continues throughout one's professional career.

No practitioner shall remain on the register maintained under section 19(1) of the UMDPC Act 1996, unless he or she has undergone a minimum continuing education under subsection (1) of the Act, and failure to comply shall constitute a ground for disciplinary action.

5. HIERARCHY OF LEARNING ACTIVITIES

A Medical and Dental Practitioner may obtain CEUs at any level depending on personal circumstances and individual learning needs.

5.1 Level 1

These are activities that do not have a clearly measurable outcome and are presented as a once off non-continuous basis. CEUs are allocated according to time, 1 CEU per hour to a maximum of 8 CEUs per day. These activities must have hands on component with each hour earning 2 CEUs to a minimum of 4 CEUs per day. These activities include:

- Meetings or presentations.
- Formally arranged hospital or inter-departmental meetings or updates.
- Case study discussions.
- Formally organized special purpose teaching/learning ward rounds (not including routine service ward rounds).

- Mentoring/supervision activity that is specific to certain professions.
- Conferences, symposia, refresher courses, short courses without a measurable outcome and international conferences.
- Interest groups meeting less than six times per year.

5.2 Level 2

Presenters/co-presenters/Instructors can only earn CEUs once if the same presentation is given more than once. Presenters of such activities can be allocated double CEUs, for instance if the attendee receives 1CEU, presenters can get 2CEUs excluding presenters at large group activities who would be allocated CEUs from level 2.

a.	Principal author of a peer reviewed publication or chapter in a book.	5
b.	Co-author/editor of a peer reviewed publication or chapter in a book.	4
c.	Review of an article/chapter in a book/journal.	3

5.3 Level 3

This level includes individuals who are undertaking a structured health training programme of one month or more leading to an award verified and recognised by UMDPC. While these individuals will be required to renew their APLs, they automatically earn their 48 CEUs.

5.4 Level 4

This level includes practitioners in managerial/administrative positions at various levels in the health sector. While these individuals will be required to renew their APLs, they earn their 48 CEUs. Retired individuals under this category who go into clinical practice are required to earn 48 CEUs using any of the other categories above.

5.5 Level 5

Appendix 7: Bloom’s Taxonomy of Learning Needs

Objective & Descriptive Verbs

It is important to use precise verbs to describe the behaviour you want the learner to achieve. Verbs such as “know” and “understand” can be open to different interpretations and it can be difficult to evaluate whether a learner “understands” a concept. However, a learning objective that states that a physician “will be able to cite the risk factors for breast cancer” can be evaluated by both the CPD Committee and the participants as to whether it has been achieved. Note the differences between the following vague and precise verbs.

Vague	Precise	Vague
Learn	List	Enjoy
Conclude	Describe	Believe
Conclude	Identify	Understand
Appreciate	Distinguish between	Grasp the meaning of

Examples of precise verbs that can be used in formulation of learning objectives at each level of Blooms Taxonomy of learning include:

Level 1 – To Communicate Knowledge
Cite	reduce	identity	measure	recall
Define	select	indicate	memorize	recognize
Describe	state	list	name	relate
Level 2 - To Communicate Comprehension

Level 3 - To Communicate Application

Assess	demonstrate	illustrate	practice	use
Choose	examine	interpret	predict	utilize
Classify		explain	operate	select
Level 4 - To Communicate Analysis
Analyse	conclude	distinguish	justify	select
Appraise	contrast	examine	question	separate
Compare	differentiate	identify	resolve	summarize

Level 5 - To Communicate Synthesis
Argue	construct	discuss	manage	propose
Combine	create	formulate	organize	restate
Compose	derive	integrate	plan	select
Conclude	design	manage	prepare	summarize
Level 6 - To Communicate Evaluation
