Awards

2014 Award Recipients

Contents

Administrator`s Distinguished Career Service Award 1

This award is the highest Agency award given to recognize exceptionally distinguished careers. It is presented only upon departure from the Agency.

Administrator`s Implementation Award 1

This award recognizes an individual employee or group for demonstrated creativity in the implementation of development assistance.

Administrator`s Management Improvement Award 1

This award recognizes individual employees and teams who have made significant contributions to improving the way in which we design and deliver our development assistance and/or our internal operations and management, which contribute to making our Agency more efficient and cost effective.

C. Herbert Rees Memorial Award 1

Recognizes one individual whose performance at mid-career level demonstrates potential for continued growth and ability to assume greater responsibility.

The Corbett M. Flannery Award 1

The Office of Security recognizes one USAID employee who has made significant contributions over a sustained period of time to the safety and security of Agency personnel.

George C. Marshall Award 1

To recognize one GS employee who has made significant contributions over a sustained period of time to the development mission or functional operations of the Agency.

Global Development Alliance Leader`s Group Award 1

The award recognizes a group of USAID employees for leadership in the development and/or management of a public-private alliance(s). The award is to be given for extraordinary accomplishment in all phases of activity leading to the formalization and implementation of a public-private alliance(s).

Granville-Rahama Staff Care Award 1

The Agency will recognize one American and one non-American USAID employee, for their significant contributions, above and beyond the call of duty and outside of their work objectives to staff care endeavors that led to visible morale improvements in the Agency.

John L. Withers Memorial Award 2

This award recognizes an individual's extraordinary act of professional and personal commitment to the promotion universal human rights by reducing human suffering and saving lives.

Laura W. Bush Award for Excellence in the Advancement Of Global Women`s Equality 2

This award recognizes outstanding performance in the area of women's equality and empowerment.

Mary Reynolds Memorial Group Award for Innovation in A&A 2

This award recognizes an individual or group demonstrating the highest degree of innovation with the greatest Agency impact. Innovations can deal with any aspect of acquisition or assistance, (i.e. changes in policy spearheaded by an individual or organization); changes in procedures; new or creative use of an Information Technology tool.

Contents
